A company with strong brands and clear values

About us

Haus Rabenhorst was founded in 1805 as a winery. Today this company, with headquarters in Unkel on the Rhine, is a highly specialised supplier of fruit and vegetable juices and healthy foods, well-known and loved in many places. In the production of natural products, the emphasis is on sustainability – in procuring raw materials, in production and in the packaging of the products. A special expertise of Haus Rabenhorst is an understanding of nature, natural substances and their integration into healthy, nutritious foods. Quality across the board, continuity and an awareness of trends and innovations – these are the strengths of Haus Rabenhorst. Detailed information available at: www.rabenhorst.de/en/about-rabenhorst

Quality

A long tradition can have many advantages. One of them is certainly the possibility to have garnered a wealth of experience, which makes it easier to concentrate on the really important things. For Rabenhorst, therefore, the core values of naturalness, sustainability and quality form the focus of all our day-to-day activities. It is no mystery how our Rabenhorst fruit juices come by their unique, unspoilt flavour - it is the result of decades of experience. At Rabenhorst – today, as for more than the last 100 years – only the very best raw materials are processed with the greatest care and all conceivable effort to create exceptional direct fruit juice and nectar products. Everything you want to know about sustainable cultivation, strict quality assurance, gentle processing and protective packaging of Rabenhorst juices can be found here.
