About us

Rickmers Reismühle is the well-known B2B manufacturer for rice ingredients & rice in Europe. We source our raw materials exclusively where we obtain the best qualities of the most diverse rice varieties. In our only production plant in Bremen / Germany everything is completely under control. With our qualities and solutions we serve a variety of markets and customers:

Business Unit Ingredients Rice / Rice: We are well versed in the food and pet food industry. Our products (rice flour, pregelatinized rice flour, rice flake flour, rice semolina, rice flake semolina, rice flakes, rice starch) perform a wide variety of functions here.

Business Unit Foodservice: With our premium brands bali[®] and Riso Cremona we have concentrated on rice and rice specialties with a unique variety for professional chefs. We supply the community gastronomy via the well-assorted trade (delivery wholesale / cash & carry).

Business Unit Convenience Contract Manufacturing: ready-to-use solutions for the microwave in the household are in vogue. We take care of your brand from the idea to the successful filling in the Doypack - even without rice.

Our portfolio for your success

Quality and safety are our top priorities. You can never do enough for that. Our internal testing department alone carries out over 2,000 tests per year. For example, sensory and physical analyses are constantly carried out on a random basis. Permanent controls are essential for food. Due to complex and comprehensive requirements, we work with accredited laboratories and food institutes when it comes to guaranteeing quality and safety. More than 600 test results are obtained each year. Our products and processes are regularly inspected by independent certification bodies in addition to the internal control systems. The result is impressive: IFS, BRC, BCS-Öko-Garantie, Halal

- For our success as a medium-sized company we are fast, flexible and agile
- Safe origin and first-class quality of the raw material
- Large and long experience in the rice market
- The right assortment for each business unit
