agaSAAT - BACK _ GEWÜRZ _ SAATEN

About us

„As a family business, agaSAAT® has stood for first-class quality baking, sprouting and spice seeds for almost 30 years.

Our extensive range of conventional and organic quality products serves the food industry, wholesalers and bakers and confectioners throughout Europe, both in private households and in the health food sector. These days, our customer base is as diverse as our product range. We supply the spice and processing industry as well as the food industry. In addition, we offer our expertise to the food industry in the area of services, such as CO2 high pressure treatment or cleaning and blending of raw materials.“

Products & Quality

Our services are as flexible as your requirements. That is why we bake your seeds to order in accordance with food safety regulations: From cultivation to certification, agaSAAT offers you seed refinement that meets even the highest demands. Our team of experts travel all over the world in order to obtain only high-quality seeds directly from the countries where they are grown. From sowing to harvest, they regularly check the quality and cultivation of the plants. Quality does not happen by chance!
